Business Development Manager Appointed

Smartstak are pleased to announce that Andrew Adams has agreed to join the company in the role of Business Development Manager.

Andrew is no stranger to the Smartstak system having worked extensively alongside the company during it's development and roll-out.

Dave Arthur, Smartstak Operations Manager, said "Smartstak has embarked on a global awareness programme which has proved fruitful in the many markets around the world, and with significant rewards been realised. As a company we need to capitalise on this growth, Andrews appointment, with his vast experience and knowledge of the glass container market, coupled with his first hand experience of working with Smartstak made him the ideal choice for the company"

Andrew added, "After many years of working in the glass industry I am delighted to be joining Loadhog. Smartstak is an exciting innovative product which has the potential to revolutionise glass packaging. I have seen the advantages of using the Smartstak system first hand and hope this experience will help me spread the use of Smartstak throughout the glass making world."
